Sir:

This document is submitted to correct a typographical error in the Response to Office Action submitted on July 25, 2005. The amendment to the specification at page 13, line 16-page 15, line 1 inadvertently omitted underlining at three instances of changing the word "flame" to "frame." That amendment is repeated in this document with the corrected underlining.

Applicants' Representative apologizes for the inadvertent error and any inconvenience caused.

Amendments to the Specification begins on page 2 of this Response.

Remarks begin on page 3 of this Response.
